CITY MATTERS.

Mr. W. T. Bishop, jun., of Cincinnati, is at the Arcade.

Mr. Edward R. Bates, of Louisville, is at the Lagoda House.

The station-house light shows that no arrests were made last night.

The Pat Rooney Combination arrived this morning and are registered at the Lagoda House.

Mr. W. C. Rineer, traveling passenger agent of the P. & C. St. L., is stopping at the Arcade.

The old dog about "stealing everything but a red-hot stove," doesn't hold good this weather.

Mr. F. M. Caldwell, General Passenger Agent of the P. & C. St. L. road, is registered at the Arcade.

Messrs. Allison and Brannan succeeded to their old places in the fire department yesterday morning.

A meeting of the Women's Relief Corps, G. A. R., will be held to-morrow afternoon at three o'clock at the G. A. R. hall.

Grand matinee at Black's Opera House Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Admission 10 and 15 cents. A first-class entertainment. The Wyman's.

Hon. A. G. Brandner, now with Messrs. John H. Thomas & Sons, has sent to the Globe-Republic late copies of the Kansas City Journal.

The Directors of the Farmers' National Bank of South Charleston met at their place of business Friday morning and organized by electing A. D. Hancock President; A. G. Pratt, Vice President; M. Clark, Cashier.

Dept. Commander H. P. Lloyd has issued a circular requesting all staff officers, delegates and comrades attending the G. A. R. Encampment at Akron next week, to appear in uniform, with regulation hat and cord. Headquarters will be at the Hot-Bucchi.

A little colored boy was at the C. C. & A. I. passenger station this morning with both hands badly frost-bitten. He had come in from the country, with his mother, to take the eight o'clock train and had no covering for his hands. The party left on the train, although the boy was in considerable pain.

The action of the Xenia City Council in passing a resolution requesting the county commissioners to offer a reward for the arrest of the man who shot Officer Harner, reminds one of the chap who, during the war, was so patriotic he was willing to see all his wife's relations enlist in the army and go to the front.

Mr. S. Jerome Uhl is now back in Paris, at No. 7 Rue Campagne Premiere. He has been spending several months at the quaint and historical city of Rouen, and at Dieppe, a channel port, painting sketches and pictures, for Mr. B. H. Warner, Mr. John W. Bookwalter, Mr. A. S. Bushnell and others of our citizens.

Harry Fisher has written a letter inviting the Hamiltons to join the new base ball association, to include Dayton, Springfield, and other good points in this part of Ohio, and Fort Wayne, Evansville, and Terre Haute, Indiana. A meeting will be held here within a month to act upon the proposed organization, and Hamilton is asked to send a representative.

How is this? The agent for the "Yak," dramatic company that appears here on the same night with the 5-and-40 Blackbirds kicked vigorously because the latter have advertised noted comedians without authority. The agent sent the Blackbirds programme to each of the actors named, and expect them to give the Blackbirds trouble by bringing suits for damage.

The Pat. Rooney party arrived at the Lagoda House early this morning, and a break was at once made for the mail, a large amount of which had accumulated pending the troupe's arrival, showing that the boys have a few friends—or creditors—left. They flocked around the desk while Tommy Dayton tumbled the pack and called off the names, which were eagerly responded to, for show people have hearts just like others. Those of the boys who girls had omitted the usual postal cards were allowed to stand around and see their more fortunate fellows read theirs.

A new feature in the Universalist Church has been introduced in the form of a question box: all persons that are seeking for truth are solicited to deposit in the box any questions relating to theology, religion and morality. The questions will be answered by the pastor, Rev. J. M. H. Smith. Questions that require a sermon, will be answered in that form; others that only require a few words will precede the regular sermon. All questions to insure an answer must be accompanied by the real name of the author, also their personal attendance. The box will also be used for contributions to home missionary work.

An Early Morning Wedding. Miss Lizzie McGreen, the attractive daughter of Mr. Owen McGreen, of East Washington street grocer, was married at half-past six o'clock this morning to Mr. James Gainer, assistant yardmaster of the I. B. & W. road at this point. The ceremony was impressively performed after the usual forms by Rev. Father W. H. Sidley, in St. Raphael's church. There were fifty or sixty witnesses present. Mr. P. Croshaw acting as the happy groom's "best man," and Miss Celia Kelly as bridesmaid. After the ceremony the company returned to the home of the bride's parents, near the church, where a tempting and elaborate wedding breakfast was spread, including fruits, confectionery, rich cake, etc. Here also were displayed the numerous and intrinsically valuable tokens of regard from relatives and friends here and at a distance. The festivities only ceased when the time arrived for the bride and groom to take their departure on a brief wedding trip. The couple left on the 8 o'clock a. m. C. C. & A. I. train for Cincinnati, followed by the good wishes of those who attended them to the station. They will return the first of next week and go to housekeeping in a home of their own, already nicely furnished and fitted up, on Scott street.

The Globe-Republic is obliged to Mr. McGreen for courtesies extended.

THE LUMBERMEN.

Second Annual Session.

The lumbermen, after the morning session yesterday, accepted the courtesies of the I. B. & W. road, and under the guidance of the local committee visited many of the manufacturing industries of the city as the time would allow; returning to the hotel for a brief rest and refreshment. The evening session was called at the G. A. R. hall at 8:15.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions of thanks were tendered to the lumber dealers of Springfield for the very liberal and generous manner in which they have entertained the Association, and especially for the invitation to banquet. Also to the officers of the I. B. & W. Railroad for the courtesies extended, enabling the Association to view the industries of the city. Thanks were extended to the retiring officers of the Association for the able and efficient manner in which they discharged their duties.

The committee on time and place for holding the next meeting reported in favor of Pittsburgh, Pa., as the place, and the third Tuesday in January, '86, as the time, which was adopted.

The election of officers resulted, viz: President, Geo. Sadler, of Ravensburg; Vice President, Harry C. Wright, of Dayton; Secretary, J. M. Campbell, of Canton; Director, F. D. Torrence, of Xenia.

Secretary Campbell was granted discretionary power in publishing the constitution and by-laws. H. C. Wright appointed a committee on railroad matters. The salary of the secretary increased from $150 to $300. Article first of constitution was amended to include within the requisites of a dealer, that he shall, in all proper hours, keep an open office for the sale of lumber.

Article II was added to the constitution providing for the admission of wholesale dealers as honorary members, by payment of regular dues for membership.

After the business session, which was largely attended, the Association, headed by the Big Six Band, marched to the Arcade Hotel, and in obedience to the command of the Master of Ceremonies Captain Asa Bushnell sat down to the banquet.

BANQUET.

The spacious dining hall of the Arcade Hotel was elegantly decorated for the occasion, in which were displayed appropriate mottoes, and words of welcome to the lumbermen.

The menu cards were highly artistic, and the fare embraced the usually well-provided spread of the well-known Rockfield of the Arcade. Over one hundred and fifty chairs were occupied by the Association and invited guests, and it was bordering on the wee small hours when the master of ceremonies called the toast.

TOASTS.

Welcome Address, G. C. Rawlins, Mr. Rawlins, in a very happy manner turned over the city to the Association, and invited them to "take it."

Response by Pres. Geo. Sadler: Though we are lumbermen we are not woodmen. We know Springfield, the names of your manufacturers are household words with us, and the click of your manufactured articles is heard in every clime under the sun. We come to enjoy your hospitality, but it has filled us too full for utterance, but we never take anything that is beyond our reach. Your generous reception merits the hearty thanks of the association, which I have the pleasure of extending to you.

The Lumber Dealers' Association, response by Secretary J. M. Campbell: We are capable of reaching over many feet (of lumber) to get what we want, as you will perceive. The idea of our association was first conceived by Mr. D. A. Wilhelm, of East Palestine, and organized at Canton one year ago last November. Its first regular meeting was held at Dayton last year. We number one hundred and sixty-six, and our object is the protection of the retail against the wholesale dealer, but we ask nothing that is unreasonable, and we invite the co-operation of the wholesale dealer in our efforts to build up a legitimate, reliable trade.

The Wholesale Dealers, response by John G. Foster, of Greenville, Mich.: Mr. Foster voiced the good will of the wholesale dealers toward the association briefly but pointedly, and suggested that the retail dealers publish a pamphlet containing the names of all legitimate dealers in the various places as a guide to wholesale men.

The railroads of the North, West and South, response by Mr. Coolidge, of Detroit, Michigan: I have been consulting with gentlemen of your association in regard to what I should say on this toast. I had thought to tell you something of Muskegon's lumber resources; but they said to me, never mind that, tell us all about the girls. I can't do that; for I am innocent. However, when you are there, we will speak in action rather than words.

The Press, response by J. R. Hale, of the Globe-Republic. Modesty forbids further notice of this effort, but it is fair to say that it was done wholly in self defense, and without malice aforethought.

The Ladies, response by Robt. Brain: I am not an authority on ladies, and feel shy in addressing the lumbermen on this solemn subject. You are indebted to your mothers for your earliest lessons in the lumber trade, especially in judging of shingles by weight.

The manufacturers of Springfield, by Capt. Bushnell. The Capt. was caught by the President of the Association who proposed this toast as a voluntary.

Mr. Bushnell sketched the history of the manufacturing interests in this city, and noted their alliance with the lumber dealers. He closed the banquet with expressions of the best wishes of Springfield for the continued pleasure of the Association during their trip to Muskegon, and for continued and increased success in business.

STUPID SHOTS.

The Big Six Band's serenade concert during the banquet was one of the features of the grand success.

The gavel presented to the Association by President Sadler was not made from a pine knot dropped from A. No. 1 Siding, but of apple-tree and hickory.

The badges were painted red.

Cincinnati could have had the next meeting of the Association had the lumbermen of that city manifested more interest in securing it.

Mr. Guy D. Alexander, representing the W. Harvey Lumber Company, of Chicago, entertained the lumbermen in No. 117 Arcade Hotel. Mr. Alexander is a royal entertainer and won a host of friends.

The members of the Association were earnest in their expressions of praise for Springfield's hospitality.

"I am saw-dust (sawdust) when I sing" was a popular ballad in Springfield yesterday and last night. We pine for another pun.

They left their wives at home, but Muskegon, Mich., is noted for the prettiest girls on the peninsula.

They started on the excursion to Muskegon at 7 o'clock this morning—Good by!

The poor little children are often sufferers from the most acute sufferings from which their elders are exempt. The value of Mischler's Herb Bitters as a family medicine is apparent, therefore, when it is known that it is equally efficacious in dealing with the ailments of little folks as well as of grown persons. Mrs. Mary Barnes, of Louisville, Ky., writes: "Mischler's Herb Bitters has entirely cured May, my little girl, and Mr. Barnes says it is the remedy for worms, in children or adults, in the market."

I have been bothered with catarrh for about twenty years. I could not tell how many different remedies I have tried, and none seemed to reach my case like Ely's Cream Balm. I had lost my smell entirely for the last fifteen years, and I had almost lost my hearing. My eyes were getting so dim I had to get some one to thread my needle. Now I have my hearing as well as I ever had, and I can see to thread as fine a needle as ever I did, and my smell is partly restored, and it seems to be improving all the time. I think there is nothing like Ely's Cream Balm for Catarrh. I always had a trouble with my throat and a little hacking cough, and I am almost well of that—Mrs. M. E. Grimes, 67 Valley St., Readville, Perry Co., Ohio.

Insanity is on the increase. Statistics show that many cases are brought on by overwork, anxiety, excitement, mental trouble, and nervous prostration; it is also inherited. Invariably sleeplessness and constipation manifest themselves before one becomes insane. Constipation induces dyspepsia, jaundice, bad breath, piles, pimples, low spirits, headache, etc. Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic relieves constipation, thereby curing these diseases. Price, 50 cents. Theo. Troupe & Co.

Have you seen the bargains on the Cheap Table at Murphy & Bro.?

CURES FOR PILES. Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching Piles held at once to the application of Dr. Ross' Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the tumor, allaying the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Sold by Ad. Bakhaus & Co.

The average length of life is on the increase. The science of medicine has made great progress; many diseases are now controlled that were formerly thought incurable. Facts About the Child. A healthy child is a joy in the house. A sick and feeble child is a constant worry. The disease which attacks the child are those which attack the adult, but in a milder form. Brown's Iron Bitters acts gently but powerfully on these, storing the child to health and vigor. It is a pleasant medicine to take, and the children under its use will gain strength in every portion of the body.

M. L. Blair, Alderman 5th Ward, Scranton, Pa., stated Nov. 9, '83: He had used Dr. March's Rock Candy Cough Cure, and it cured him of a severe cold, cough, and rheumatism. Cured every time.

Some Foolish People. Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, Oh it will wear away, but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which we sell on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect of Kemp's Balsam. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial size free. Sold by Dr. T. J. Casper, Druggist.

Positive Cure for Piles. To the people of this country we would say we have been given the Agency of Dr. March's Italian Pile Ointment—emphatically guaranteed to cure or money refunded—Internal, External, Blind, Bleeding or Itching piles. Loss and Gain. CHAPTER I. "I was taken sick a year ago. With bilious fever."

"My doctor pronounced me cured, but I got sick again, with terrible pains in my back and sides, and I got so bad I could not move!"

"From 228 lbs. to 120 I had been doctoring for my liver, but it did me no good. I did not expect to live more than three months. I began to use Hop Bitters. Directly my appetite returned, my pains left me, my entire system seemed renewed as if by magic, and after using several bottles, I am not only as sound as a sovereign, but weigh more than I did before. To Hop Bitters I owe my life."

Dublin, June 6, '81. R. FITZPATRICK.

CHAPTER II. "Malen, Mass., Feb. 1, 1880. Gentlemen—I suffered with attacks of sick headache, Neuralgia, female trouble, for years in the most terrible manner. Each year I bought an instrument and a few boxes of crayon. Very few were ever known afterward to succeed in making a picture that resembled the original, much less to become artists."

"Are the pantographs much used?" "They are used mostly now to trace maps and irregular mechanical drawing. See, I am enlarging the interior view of a Pullman palace car, and instead of using a rule to draw the perspective lines and get the seats an equal distance apart, I do it all in a short time with the pantograph."

New York Mail and Express.
